Dedication

We, the class of 1978, dedicate this yearbook to the individual. As we journey through life, each will take life in stride, will voice his own opinions, and take pride in his own being . . .

I do my thing and you do your thing.

I am not in this world
to live up to your expectations,

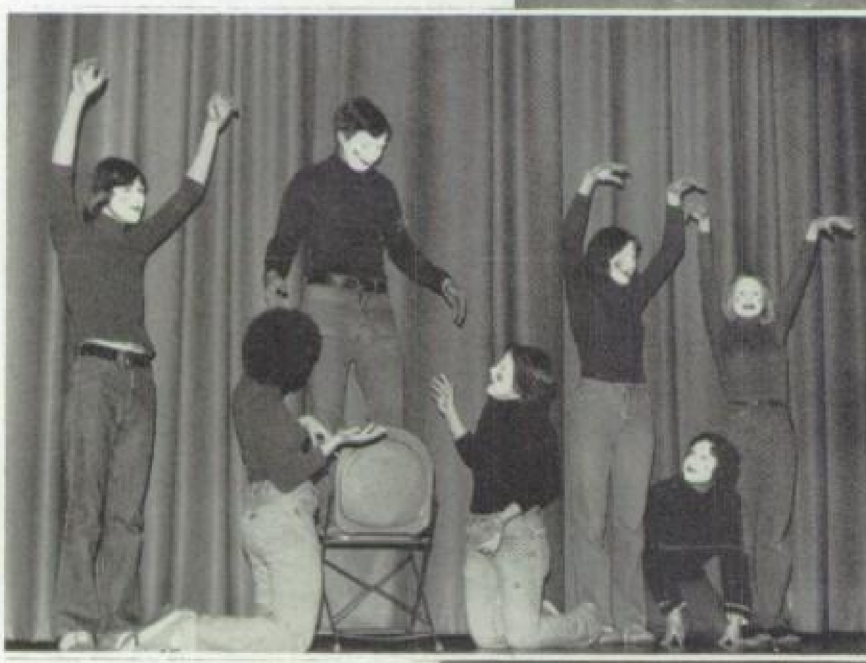

And you are not in this world
to live up to mine.

You are you and I am I and if by chance, we find each other . . .

It's beautiful.

There is no frigate like a book to take us lands away,
Nor any courses like a page of prancing poetry.

MONTGOMERY M. LIDWELL

I shall pass through this world but once.

Any good, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness I can show to any human being, let me do it now, let me not defer it or neglect it, for — I shall not pass this way again.
